Richard Hanulewicz

CSE 573

Fall 2017

Final Project Proposal

For my final project I am proposing to build a Playing Card Recognition System. That is, a basic system that will recognize what type of playing card the camera is looking at. It will be for a standard deck of 52 Modern French Playing Cards. I will be using Python and OpenCV and will be working alone. Keep in mind I have never used OpenCV and do not know what I am getting into so it may be a learning curve.